The road ahead for city's MPs in the next five years

OXFORD'S LEADERS LIST BATTLE PLANS

• Labour MP for Oxford East Andrew Smith

• Conservative MP for Oxford West and Abingdon Nicola Blackwood

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

IN the aftermath of a surprise election result nationally Oxford's Conservative and Labour MPs have unveiled how they hope to move the city forward over the coming years.

The Conservatives held on to all five of their six Oxfordshire seats and Oxford West and Abingdon MP Nicola Blackwood is targeting improved education and A34 investment after being elected in Thursday's election.

Ms Blackwood secured a majority of more than 9,500 votes and speaking to the Guardian after her win said: "We will invest in the NHS, protect education spending, but also bring in local infrastructure and investment we need for the A34 to help get rid of our terrible traffic jams."

She also promised to continue the campaign for flood defences for Oxford, and added: "The Oxford West and Abingdon flood defences will protect 7,600 homes from flooding and skills and investment for new jobs."

Labour MP for Oxford East, Andrew Smith said that housing in the city is a problem that he will strive to find a solution for.

He said: "It's an absolutely crucial issue. We need to expand housing on the city's outskirts.

"There must also be well planned environmentally friendly extensions into the green belt – it's vital for the success of our economy."

Mr Smith also stated that the parking problems at the John Radcliffe Hospital in Headington have to be addressed.

He said: "There needs to be a sustainable transport plan for the whole of the Headington area and we need to ensure people can get to work and patients can get to the hospital when they need to."

Both MP's supported more apprenticeships in the area.

Ms Blackwood said: "I want to know that no matter what background the young person comes from, they are able to achieve their potential and I want to see more varied apprenticeships in the local area."

Mr Smith added: "I'm really strongly in favour of that.

"I certainly will be pressing for more quality apprenticeships and jobs for our young people."

Work starts on 885 home Barton Park

WORK has begun on the site where almost 900 homes are set to be built in Barton

Oxford City Council and developers Grosvenor marked the start of construction yesterday with a ground-breaking ceremony on the Barton Park site north of the Northern Bypass

A total of 885 homes will be built, 40 per cent of which will be bought by the city council for use as affordable housing

The first work sees the construction of temporary access for building traffic from the A40

City council leader Bob Price, took part in the ceremony

He said: "The council is delighted to see works starting on site at Barton Park

By Adam Flinn
adam.flinn@oxfordmediagroup.co.uk

"The planning and preparation for the new development has been a key part of our housing plans and these new homes will provide desperately needed affordable housing for the people of Oxford

"Barton Park will be an example of our ambition to provide high quality homes."

Grosvenor is building the homes in collaboration with fellow developer Hill who are due to submit a full application for the first 237 homes in the summer

They are holding two public consultation events to discuss the proposals – at Barton Neighbourhood Centre on Saturday from 10am to 2pm, and at Northway Community Centre on Tuesday from 4pm to 7pm

Subject to getting planning approval, the start of house building is expected to start next summer with the first residents moving in at the start of 2017

Youngsters enjoy new cycling scheme

A GROUP of Oxford children with autism were handed the opportunity to participate in a cycling scheme earlier this month

LVS Oxford, which opened last September sent nearly half of its learners to participate in the Wheels For All Oxfordshire scheme at Horspath Athletic Ground

The initiative, run by Cycling Projects is managed by trained leaders and offers participants the chance to try out a wide range of specially adapted cycles

LVS Oxford learner Bradley said of his first session: "It was awesome. I loved being able to try different bikes, especially the recumbent bike where you lie right back."

Teacher Tom Beydon was very happy with the session and said, "LVS Oxford aims to enhance the social and emotional well being of our learners. This initiative meets and exceeds our goals in so many ways as it is an innovative way to get them interested in sport and physical activity.

"They had all such a great time and want to get more involved with cycling now."

Head of the school Jane Straw said: "Innovative days like this highlight our commitment to the development of our learners."

LVS Oxford has 23 learners and is able to accommodate children with a diagnosis on the autism spectrum through either day or residential placements

Teen robbed

OXFORD: A 14 year old boy was robbed of cash while he was with friends in Cricket Road at 5.50pm on May 3.

The boy was approached by a man on a silver bike who demanded that the victim handed over money before cycling away.

It is not known how much cash was stolen and the boy was uninjured.

The offender is described as white in his mid 20s with short dark brown hair, a thin line of facial hair and was wearing a long burgundy coat.

Uni gets to £2bn

OXFORD: Fundraising campaign Oxford Thinking, which is raising money for Oxford University, has passed the £2billion milestone.

The campaign began in 2004 to support the central university and all of its colleges, with almost 50,000 gifts being made since it began.

Donations have included £75m from venture capitalist Michael Moritz and his wife Harriet Heyman and £20m from Hong Kong entrepreneur Ka Shing Li.

Andrew Hamilton, vice-chancellor of the university said, "We are extremely grateful to the alumni, friends of the university, charities, companies and many others who have made it possible."

Driver search

ABINGDON: Police are appealing for information after a car collided with a motorbike on Northcourt Road and fled the scene.

At around 6.05pm on April 23 the dark coloured Audi hit a dark blue moped at the junction with Oxford Road.

The car briefly stopped at the scene, but left shortly afterwards.

The rider of the bike, a 19-year-old man, was left with a broken leg and taken to the John Radcliffe Hospital, and has since been discharged.

Man arrested after woman killed on A40

A MAN has been arrested on suspicion of manslaughter after a woman was killed as she crossed the carriageway on the A40 between Barton and Cutteslowe roundabouts.

At 11.46pm on May 1, the 29-year-old pedestrian was hit by a grey Toyota Avensis and was declared dead at the scene.

The driver was not injured in the collision.

A 38-year-old man from Chipping Norton was arrested last Thursday on suspicion of manslaughter and has been bailed until May 29.

Senior investigating officer Det Ch Insp Simon Steel said, "We are very keen to hear from anyone who may have seen the occupants of a silver Mercedes in the area just before the collision.

"It is believed that the victim, a young woman of 29, left the silver Mercedes and was walking along the verge of the road before getting onto the carriageway.

Following the incident, two police officers in a marked police car were guarding the scene of the collision when a car crashed into them at 2.25am.

The driver of that vehicle, a 29-year-old woman from Oxford, has been arrested on suspicion of drink driving and bailed until June 24.

Rowing trio make GB team for Europeans

THREE Oxfordshire rowers are ready to hit the water after being selected yesterday for the GB Rowing Team in this month's European Rowing Championships in Poland.

Oxford's Katie Greves and Oxford Brookes University graduate Olivia Carnegie-Brown are set to row alongside each other in the women's eight, whilst Oxford x Olympic silver medallist Frances Houghton will row in the single scull in the event in Poznan from May 29 to 31.

The squad of 55 UK elite rowers was named in Caversham after trials last month.

Houghton is also celebrating 20 years since making her GB Rowing Team debut with the junior squad.

She said: "I feel incredibly lucky to be able to do something that I love. I'm so fortunate that I have been able to live my dream.

The 34-year old was out for eight months last year with glandular fever.

She added: "I'm going to give my best race as I feel I'm in a really great place to compete."

Greves, 32, whose team won a silver medal at the championships last year, said: "It's the first big event of the season and that makes it really exciting.

"The course can be really windy but hopefully we are going to get some nice sunshine on the day.

"It would be a really big deal if we get the gold but we are just taking things step by step."

Carnegie-Brown, 24, who was also part of the silver medallist team with Greves, said it is an honour to represent the country after being selected.

She told the Guardian: "Our aim is to beat that second place finish... we've talked it over and we know where we need to improve and raise our game.

"I'm absolutely confident we can do it, we just really need to hit the ground running and keep raising the bar."

Oxford University's gold winning world medallist Constantine Louloudis is set to miss out due to the tournament clashing with his university exams.

Company's call to back children's hospice

Multi-coloured finishers after last year's Rainbow Run for Helen & Douglas House

STAFF from an Oxford business have signed up to be splattered in coloured paints during next Sunday's fun run with a twist supporting Oxford's children's and young people's hospice.

Botley Insurance brokers FOCUS have pledged to cast away their contracts for the Rainbow Run for Helen & Douglas House on May 24.

FOCUS spokesman Sean Curran said: "Without the house a lot of children, young adults and families would miss out on such an amazing force of support.

The Rainbow Run is a fun and colourful way of fundraising and is completely different to other events."

Runners in white shirts will be showered with colours of the rainbow as they take on a 3km route in Cutteslowe Park, Oxford.

Last year's inaugural Rainbow Run saw around 800 people take part, and raised more than £30,000 for Helen & Douglas House.

It is hoped 1,500 will sign up this year with a fundraising target of £50,000.

Mr Curran added: "What we're most looking forward to is completing the runs as a team and being completely covered in paint.

To sign up, go to the hospice's website hdh.org.uk.

PC sacked after lying to force about stolen car

A POLICE constable based in Oxford has been sacked after lying that his car had been stolen when he had actually arranged for it to be scrapped.

Thames Valley Police constable Tom Mynehan, a patrol officer at Cowley Police Station, was dismissed after lying to the force and his insurance company that his vehicle had been stolen when he had in fact arranged for it to be removed and scrapped.

The constable reported that his vehicle, an Alfa Romeo 147, had been stolen from a lay-by on the A40 between Witney and Carterton on July 30, 2013.

His insurers gave him with a cheque for the value of the vehicle, but after concerns about the report came to light, the force's professional standards department investigated the matter.

At a subsequent misconduct hearing, the panel discovered that he had been lying and PC Mynehan was dismissed from the force last Friday for two breaches of the standards of professional behaviour.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@nqlernewspapers.co.uk

PC Mynehan has not been charged with a criminal offence in connection to the incident.

Detective Chief Superintendent Tim De Meyer of the force's professional standards department said: "Thames Valley Police takes reports of misconduct extremely seriously.

"For the public to have confidence in the police they must be able to trust us and there can therefore be no place in the police for those who do not act with integrity."

July finish for London Road revamp

• Construction staff at London Road

BUILDING work on one of the finish a £2.1million revamp Oxford's busiest roads is due in mid July.

Work on Headington's London Road, one of the main routes into the city from the east, has been resurfaced and widened.

Work started last summer and is in the final stages before the road is reopened in two months.

A new length of bus lane has been installed on the approach to the Green Road roundabout after a widening of the A40 and the A420 on both sides for a new bus stop lay by.

Cyclists and pedestrians will also benefit from shared space for them on the south side of London Road from Green road to Wharton Road.

The busy road which 16 000 vehicles use daily has also been resurfaced for approximately 500 metres from Wharton Road to the Northfield Road junction.

David Nimmo Smith Oxfordshire county councillor and cabinet member for transport said: "I am sure that commuters will be as pleased as I are to see that work has finished and that this major route into the city can return to normal."

The improvement works to be completed on schedule in advance of the work done by Barlan Park developers.

2015 ELECTIONS: Oxfordshire's results

Smith in tribute to rivals after increasing majority

OXFORD East's re-elected MP Andrew Smith paid thanks to his challengers after securing his seat that he's held for the past 28 years.

The 61 year old former secretary of state for work and pensions retained his seat over Conservative challenger Melanie Magee with a 15,280 majority and 42 per cent swing for Labour.

After the announcement he said: "I thank the people of Oxford East for a resounding vote of confidence. I'm very grateful for the spirit and support of each party."

Smith also spoke about the support he received from the opponents regarding his wife Val's illness. "I'd like to thank each and everyone one of my opponents for their support in what was an emotionally very difficult campaign for me."

Smith, speaking to the Guardian after the result, said: "We've been out and spoken to the electorate all year round and it is the secret to why we're doing so well – we serve our community a need consistently.

"I believe you earn every victory and we've worked hard to earn this."

The Green's Ann Duncan beat Lib Dem Alasdair Murray to third by 437 votes with UKIP's Ian Macdonald finishing in fifth.

Howell reveals his five-year plan for Henley constituency

JOHN Howell saw his majority rise by almost 9,000 in the Henley constituency, as he polled more than four times the number of votes than second placed Sam Juthani.

His majority of 16,538 in 2010 rose to 25,375 this year as the Liberal Democrats, who had been second at the last election, lost half their votes to fall back in third.

And after securing his win, Mr Howell spoke about what his plans were for the next five years in the constituency.

"I am campaigning for the NHS by having a consultation on Henley's hospital and making sure that the facilities there meet the health needs of the local people," he said.

"It's also about getting things like superfast broadband into homes. It's a very rural constituency but making sure that it's available.

"Unemployment has fallen 70 per cent since the last general election. We've made sure local companies were in the right place."

Lib Dems see support drop in Oxford West and Abingdon

IT was a miserable night for the Liberal Democrats across the county, as they lost thousands of votes in all six Oxfordshire constituencies.

The party had had high hopes of reclaiming the Oxford West and Abingdon seat, which they lost to the Conservatives by just 176 votes in 2010.

But Lib Dem candidate Layla Moran saw her support dramatically drop from the previous election, as she ended up 9,582 votes shy of Nicola Blackwood's total.

Of course it's always disappointing, but actually I'm just so proud of the campaign we've run," said Ms Moran after the result was revealed.

"It's clearly one of the strongest campaigns in the country in the backdrop of what was clearly a bruising night for the Liberal Democrats."

She added: "I will not stop talking about the issues and standing up for local people – there are still many issues we need to fix locally and we're not going anywhere."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are misted up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames – has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service.

Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money although that's usually helpful.

Many tradespeople have struggled once fed your and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customers care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers, as how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way is very sad for the service industry as a whole.

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire for their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. The truthe that it's no job that's too small or a little bit of effort is appreciated.

So if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call to a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118, and be it be happy to help.

Tories extend Vale majority

By Adam Flinn
adam.flinn@trinitymirror.co.uk

THE Conservatives extended their majority on Vale of White Horse District Council to 20 seats as they enjoyed a comfortable victory over the Liberal Democrats.

The results from all 24 wards were announced on Friday afternoon at Abingdon's White Horse Leisure Centre after voters had gone to the polls last Thursday.

A total of 29 Tory councillors will now sit on the council with nine Liberal Democrats and no one from any other parties.

This compares to the 27 Conservatives, 21 Lib Dems, one independent and one Labour councillor that represented the Vale before the election.

The number of seats on the council was cut as part of cost cutting measures from 51 seats to 38 across the 24 wards (one or two councillors represent each ward).

Council leader Matthew Barber said: "We expected to retain control even though we've had to make some very difficult decisions in the past four years in regard to planning.

"But we found we were the only political group on the Vale who actually have a plan to deliver for the district, and on the back of the general election I think we got the result we felt we deserved.

"We've set out a five point plan, we're gaining control of planning, getting infrastructure to the community, keeping council tax as low as possible, investing in leisure facilities and on flood prevention work.

"We're now able to put that into action and work for the Vale for the next four years."

The result was a huge blow for the Lib Dems who, after previously controlling the council before 2011 now have less than a quarter of the seats.

Former Lib Dem councillors who lost their seats included Jim Halliday, Alison Rooke and leader of the opposition Richard Webber, who missed out in the Drayton ward by 40 votes.

He said: "I'm hurting because I think the public need to know there is a big difference between local and national politics.

"I understand they have rejected the Lib Dems nationally but none of that had any thing to do with those working hard locally for a village and there are a lot of people losing to others with no track record of doing anything.

2015 ELECTIONS: Oxfordshire's results

Sea of blue as Conservatives take 33 of 36 seats on SODC

▪ Tony Harbour (centre) is congratulated by John Cotton (right) and Abingdon councillor Sandy Lovatt (left)

By Adam Flinn
adam.flinn@oxfordmailnewspapers.co.uk

ALL but three seats on South Oxfordshire District Council are now controlled by the Conservatives, as they convincingly extended their majority control.

The results from the district's 21 wards were announced at Abingdon's White Horse Leisure Centre on Friday.

A total of 33 of the 36 councillors represent the Conservatives on the newly-elected council, with just one Labour, one Liberal Democrat and one Henley Residents Group representative.

Before the election there had been 29 Tories, seven independents, four Labour, four Liberal Democrats, one Ukip and three vacancies.

The number of seats on the council was cut as part of cost cutting measures from 48 seats to 36 across the 21 wards (one to three councillors represent each ward).

John Cotton, leader of SODC, said: "I'm very pleased, it's a good set of results for us and much better than I was expecting.

"People are very satisfied with how we're running the council, the way recycling is going, happy with the community investment we're doing.

"We're going to tackle some of the big issues around planning and housing, making sure the infrastructure is delivered, keeping the council tax down, things we've been doing already.

"We'll also be looking at some new areas where we could improve."

One of the hardest hit parties in SODC's elections was Labour, who saw their four seats in Didcot reduced to just one.

Only Margaret Davies was elected for the Didcot South seat, with former councillors Eleanor Hards and Bernard Cooper voted out.

Nick Hards, county councillor for Didcot West and candidate for Didcot North East in the SODC elections, was unhappy with the results.

He said: "I'm particularly upset about the result in Didcot South. I think we've lost some good councillors.

"Margaret is perfectly capable of functioning on her own and she's done it before, but it's not good for democracy.

"They need someone to hold the district to account and it takes more than one person to do that. I don't think the district council is going to be in a good place for the next four years."

2015 ELECTIONS: Oxfordshire's results

West Oxon and Cherwell

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan.campbell@oxfordmailnewspapers.co.uk

THE Conservatives maintained their stronghold in West Oxfordshire and Cherwell in last week's district council elections.

The results for the elections were announced at Witney's Windrush Leisure Centre on Friday afternoon, following the election the previous day.

West Oxfordshire remained mostly blue as the Conservatives took 16 out of the 17 seats with the Liberal Democrats beating the Tories to secure Andy Graham's seat for Charlbury and Finstock.

Labour's performance mirrored that on the parliamentary scale as they lost the Chipping Norton seat that they gained in 2011.

The results meant that the Conservatives have maintained a stronghold of 16 seats from the previous election.

The Conservatives also took 14 out of Cherwell's 17 seats with Labour maintaining two seats in Banbury and independent candidate Les Sibley held on to secure his seat in Bicester West.

Conservative Barry Norton, leader of the West Oxfordshire District Council said: "It was a very exciting result for us, particularly as we secured Chipping Norton from Labour which required a tremendous effort in order to secure that seat."

However, Cllr Norton was disappointed to see the Conservatives lose the Charlbury seat to the Lib Dems, and said: "Local issues were the main cause when it came to losing that seat, there's a strong Liberal contingency there."

On outlining the council's plans for next four years as a result of their election success, Cllr Norton said: "We are going to save money and be smarter by working with the community on the front line.

"It's in our DNA to succeed at this and we are going to improve the quality of life for our residents."

Julian Cooper, leader of West Oxfordshire's Liberal Democrats was delighted that they managed to secure the Charlbury seat despite the poor vote nationally for the party.

He said: "We are quite pleased we managed to get the seat, it will help up share the burden and to spread the liberal message across West Oxfordshire."

Health check-up for Exiles fans

THE health of London Welsh fans is to go under the spotlight as Oxfordshire County Council have teamed up with the club to offer health checks to supporters

Welsh's final game of the season against Saracens on Sunday will see fans being offered mini-checks on match day

They promote the NHS Health Check programme as five mini check stations will be set up on site with adults offered the chance to have their blood pressure and Body Mass Index (BMI) measured by trained professionals

The council's cabinet member for public health, Hilary Hibbert-Biles, said: "Too many people in Oxfordshire are passing up their chance to benefit from a free check.

"We hope plenty of people will stop and take part in our mini check."

London Welsh CEO, Mike Stevens said, "London Welsh is delighted to be assisting OCC in promoting the programme and we would encourage all supporters to take advantage of this opportunity"

Participants will receive a reference card and be entered into a prize draw for a signed shirt and mini rugby ball

New project to support children

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@oxfordnewspapers.co.uk

A CHARITY project has launched after a report highlighting the key role churches need to play helping vulnerable young people in Oxfordshire

The Doorsteps initiative was launched in Oxford yesterday by children's Christian charity Viva.

Police chiefs, leaders of different faith groups and agencies gathered at the King's Centre in Osney for the event, which presented the findings of a report by Viva

It focused on five major issues facing vulnerable families and young people all across the country

The five issues were unstable family life, low self-esteem, lack of aspiration for life, difficulty finding a job, and household poverty

The 58 page document was compiled by Viva network consultant Katy Thompson over the course of a year

It featured data gathered from over 200 adults and young people across the country

• Viva's Kezia McClelland during a presentation for local church and youth leaders (picture by Viva's Andrew Dubock)

She said of the report: "The issues facing children and young people here on our own doorsteps is significant and complex

"Often the child or young person is vulnerable because the family is struggling, so we need to work with the family as a unit."

Viva believe churches are well placed to be a part of this response and state many are active in work with children and young people in their area

Katy added: "There is a clear need for churches to review their budgets and consider ways to invest more resources

"In this current age of austerity they need to step up and step out even more in action, justice and compassion."

The Doorsteps initiative aims to support Oxfordshire churches by mobilising and equipping them to meet the needs of these struggling families

RI Rev Colin Fletcher, Bishop of Dorchester said: "I believe that partnership working is really important as resources become even more limited we have got to get more skilful about pulling together"

OCT will give accurate diagnosis

- AMD
- Diabetic Maculopathy
- Macular Hole
- Epiretinal Membrane
- Early detection of Glaucoma

*It is estimated that approximately 2% of people over the age of 40 will have Glaucoma

*Statistics obtained from The International Glaucoma Association

What is an OCT scan?

This practice has invested in the very latest OCT scanning technology.

An Optical Coherence Tomography (OCT) scan is a unique test which uses near-infrared light reflected off the retina to produce a high resolution 3-Dimensional scan of the retina and associated structures

It is particularly useful in the assessment of patients with AMD, Diabetic Maculopathy, early detection of Glaucoma and the management of these diseases. The test is non invasive, quick and entirely painless

Am I at risk of Glaucoma?

Are you over 40?
Do you have a family history of Glaucoma?
Are you short sighted?
Do you have diabetes?
Are you of African-Caribbean origin?

If the answer is yes to any of these questions, then you are at an increased risk and should definitely have your eyes tested regularly*

Why has this practice invested in OCT?

We believe this advanced imagery allows us to detect and monitor early stages of diseases and as this examination is not available under the NHS, we make an additional charge for this scan. Please ask for further details

This assessment of your eyes using OCT Technology will give us the most accurate diagnosis possible and help us give you the best advice to protect your sight and the health of your eyes

Your eyes deserve the benefits of cutting edge technology available at this practice.

Musical rolls into town

BASED on the real life events of the American rock and pop band The Four Seasons, the internationally acclaimed stage production of Jersey Boys is at Oxford's New Theatre until May 23

Starring Lewis Griffiths, Tim Driesen Sam Ferriday and Stephen Webb the popular musical follows the journey of a group of blue collar workers from New Jersey on their path to become one of the most successful groups of the last century despite the odds being stacked against them

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspaper.co.uk

The audience will always react differently to certain points depending where we are and it's great to witness their reaction," actor Sam Ferriday who plays Bob Gaudio told the Guardian

"During the UK and Ireland means we get to play in front of thousands of different people and last summer I was lucky enough to meet Bob in Nashville where he now lives He's a great down to earth guy who is a genius and to play out his story each night is seriously special"

The Four Seasons who originally consisted of Frankie Valli, Tommy DeVito Bob Gardio and Nicholas Macnee are recognised for their hits such as December 1963 (Oh What a Night) Sherry and Walk Like a Man which made them a dominant force throughout 1960 s, as the group topped the charts in the US and the UK

Years of success followed, which lead the group to embark on solo projects while still working with the band.

Lead singer Valli went on to record the Grease theme song for the 1978 blockbuster

Following their 60s success, former member Bob Gaudio decided to create a musical called Jersey Boys back in 2005 to show the four friends rise to fame during their youth

The critically acclaimed musical has gone on to win numerous awards since its inception with a film version of the show released last year

"I have seen the film but we are not employed to imitate other actors or Gaudio himself " Sam said.

"We bring 50 per cent of who we feel they are with our research and 50 per cent of ourselves

"Also performing on stage means each night the story is told for the first time As an actor it's important we work to re-create this, but on stage it's "live" and anything can happen There's nothing like it "

To this day the group who have had a total of 13 different members since 1960 have gone on to sell over an estimated 100 million records

Tickets will cost from £15 to £52 40 during the 11 day run with 15 performances set to take place during that time

From radio to comedy

LISTENERS wake up to his voice every weekday morning.

But following his sell out shows at the 2013 and 2014 Edinburgh Fringe festivals Absolute Radio breakfast presenter Christian O Connell is bringing his debut stand up tour to The Old Fire Station in Oxford on May 16

Breaking Dad will see the 42 year old offer sex advice to pensioners talk about the joys of parenthood and give tips on how to deal with a beloved pet death in a packed two hours at the George Street venue

What can the audience expect? Good question" Christian told the Guardian.

"They will see a man on the edge with a microphone telling some stories some questions some thoughts and opinions Mostly half formed opinions

"They will also see a man with more freedom in what he can say than if they hear my breakfast show!"

By James Richings
jamesr@taylorneypaper.co.uk

The presenter hosts The Christian O Connell Radio Show every morning where he is known for his discussions about embarrassing real life situations.

This has helped the Winchester born entertainer achieve 13 Sony Radio Academy Awards in the past 11 years

"The best advice I got given was that I was a storyteller" he explained.

"I get a real kick when people say after hearing me talk about a frustrating or awkward experience 'I've done that or that felt like it was me you were talking about' so it's not just my story then"

The event has now sold out.

The King's Speech

THE true story of King George VI's stammer will be told when 'The King's Speech' is at the Oxford Playhouse until Saturday

By James Richings
james.richings@trinitymirror.co.uk

Following his public speech at the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley Stadium on October 31, 1925, Prince Albert (also known as King George VI) was encouraged by his wife Queen Elizabeth to see speech and language therapist Lionel Louge to treat his stutter.

Amid Edward VIII's abdication and with the Second World War on the horizon, the monarch was determined to beat his impediment.

"I guess most people would expect to see something similar to the film but it's actually quite a different experience," Claire Lams, who plays Queen Elizabeth, told the Guardian.

"It's a very heart warming story and audiences are often surprised by how moved they are by the end of the show.

"There is also a kind of political thriller that runs through the play which isn't really in the film, and I think there are more laughs than you would expect."

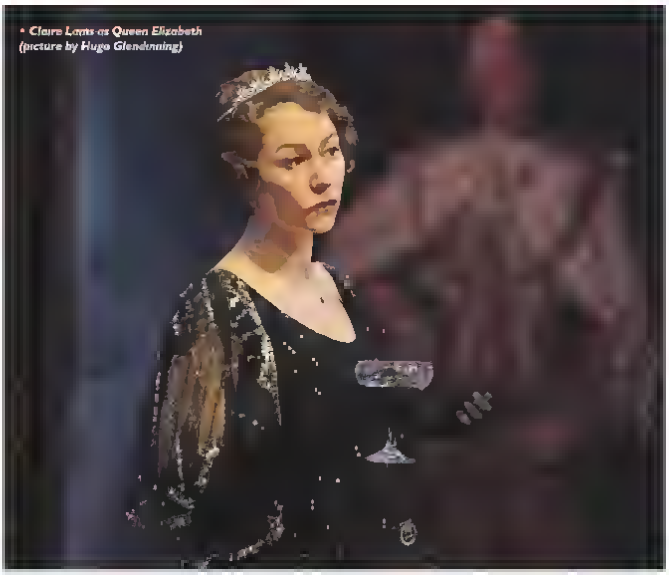

Following on from the 2011 box office hit, the on-stage production of 'The King's Speech' stars Jason Donovan and Raymond Coulthard, and was directed by Roxana Silbert.

The stage version also focuses on how Queen Elizabeth worked with her husband to overcome the stutter.

Claire added: "We spent the first week of rehearsals doing research on that period of history which was really interesting.

"However there comes a point where you have to concentrate on the script and telling the story of the play."

Tickets cost from £14 to £30 for the Beaumont Street show.

TRY ORIENTEERING AT UNIVERSITY PARKS
www.tvoc.org.uk
If you fancy a new outdoor activity to try this family, why not give orienteering a go. This event is organised by Thames Valley Orienteering Club and it is ideal for families and children. There will be several courses and plenty of helpers on hand for newcomers. There will be six courses to choose from, from 1km up to 5km, ranging around 30-75 minutes to complete, plus a special string course for very young children, where they follow a line of string to find fun characters. If you have never tried orienteering before, it's a bit like a treasure hunt and a series of checkpoints around the park, shown on a map. They are marked by flags on the ground and you register each one with an electronic timing chip to record your progress, and see how you've been doing. The challenge comes by there being routes between the checkpoints and you have to choose the best way, using a map or orienteering the park. Thanks to the supporters of Oxford City Council and Up and Running Oxford who have supplied some great prizes. Come along any time between 10.00am to 11.30am and don't forget your sense of adventure! The cost is £6 per family group or £2 for individuals.

Hyundai's i40 is ready to go

REVIEW: Hyundai i40

By James Richings

SOUTH Korean car manufacturer Hyundai have announced the prices for its new i40, which is ready to hit the roads.

The cost of the new model range from £19,600 to £26,858.

The large family car, which was first introduced in 2011, is now available in four different trim levels – the S, SE Nav, SE Nav Business and Premium.

It includes fresh styling and improved efficiency, as well as a new seven speed dual clutch transmission, which has replaced the previous automatic transmission.

The most notable redesigns are the front grille and front bumper, and with reshaped front and rear lights.

The S trim on the i40 Saloon includes 16" alloy wheels, Bluetooth connectivity, air conditioning, a leather steering wheel, automatic headlights with dusk sensors and steering wheel audio with telephone controls.

The SE Nav trim has touch screen satellite navigation with a rear view parking camera and parking system.

Priced from £21,600, the SE Nav adds to the S-model's specification with DAB radio, an auto dimming rear view mirror, climate control with auto defog, heated front seats, LED front fog lights and a seven speaker sound system.

The SE Nav Business model goes further with keyless smart entry and a start/stop button, while the range of Premium models include 18" alloy wheels, a panoramic sunroof with electric tilt and slide, along with a lane departure warning.

"The introduction of new i40 Tourer and Saloon means that the Hyundai range now has a fresher and more dynamic look, with changes aimed to appeal particularly to the requirements of our fleet customers," president and CEO of Hyundai Motor UK Tony Whitehorn said.

"The addition of the SE Nav as a new trim level provides a clear contrast from the traditional SE models and identifies the standardisation of our highly capable navigation system."

The Vauxhall free fuel event returns!

LOCAL Vauxhall retailers are helping customers cut costs at the fuel pumps this May as it welcomes back to its showroom Vauxhall's Free Fuel Event. Retailers in the Thames Valley area are giving away £500 worth of free fuel on a wide selection of brand new Vauxhall cars and vans purchased during the Free Fuel Event which takes place from Friday 15th to Monday 18th May 2015*

During the four day period, customers can also get 20% off all Genuine and Approved VauxhallAccessories including a vast array of equipment such as sat navs, iPhone/iPad cradles and cargo liners, when they purchase a new car or van. These deals are on top of Vauxhall's existing range of available offers including up to 5 years 0% APR and deposits from £99.

The £500 free fuel offer is available on a wide range of models, including the urban chic ADAM city car, the all-season soft top Cascada and the fun loving new Corsa currently available with a £2,500 maximum part exchange.

As well as passenger cars, the offer is applicable on models from Vauxhall's multi-award winning van range, including the new-look Corsavan, Combo, Vivaro and Movano, so commercial vehicle customers can benefit too.

The Vauxhall Free Fuel Event takes place between Friday 15th and Monday 18th May 2015 at Eden Vauxhall. For more details, please visit the retailer online at www.edenvauxhall.co.uk.

CALL CHARGES: DATING [illegible]

Three generations out in force for Mr Didcot

JAMIE Heapy led out three generations of Didcot s past as Town beat a side of former Reading FC players 2 1 in his testimonial on Sunday at Loop Meadow in front of a 500 strong crowd

Heapy selected the three sides for each 30 minutes of play which included Didcot s 2005 FA Vase winning side

The celebrated side were the first team out of the blocks and took the lead early on after Reading keeper Phil Brown s goal kick fell to Burton Albion striker Stuart Beavon who planted it in the bottom corner to open the scoring.

The cup-winning team also included Town joint manager Ian Concannon and saw former Didcot defender Danny Campbell play for Diddy for the first time since 2000

The Reading side also included TV personality Ralf Little and former Didcot manager Ady Williams

Towards the end of the first period Beavon and Concannon combined well for the joint manager to put the ball in the net, but it was ruled offside

The second period featured a handful of Didcot players from the Hellenic League though neither side could produce a testing effort

Reading also picked up an off side goal after Michael Gilkes put a lap in the net and Andy Merriott scuppered a great chance for the visitors.

The third side came from a collection of players from the Southern Division 1 South and West playoffs in 2010 and Stuart Beavon Snr scored a penalty for Reading after Didcot s Andy Williams brought down Michael Gilkes in the box

Didcot did manage to secure the victory late on when Kevin Cox tapped in from Richard Witt s cross before he was taken off for Jamie s dad John an ex Diddy and Wantage Town left back to have a 10 minute cameo

Heapy said after the game "It was great seeing all the boys together I've made so many great friends at this club so it was great to catch up

"The banter all came right back in the dressing room with all the Vase boys it felt like it was only yesterday that we d won the trophy"

Hard fought battle results in Plato win

JASON Plato picked up his second win of the season in the British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) on Sunday following a race long duel in race two at Thruxton with Rob Collard.

He was much quicker in the slow corners and drove really well. I had to be so careful with my car positioning but I enjoy that kind of challenge."

BANBURY United secured a dramatic win on penalties over North Leigh in a dramatic encounter at the Kassam Stadium last Friday.

United are champions for the sixth time following a 4-3 win on penalties after the teams played out a 4-4 draw in front of a 450-strong crowd.

Jamie Cook put Leigh in front with an eighth minute header before Cook assisted Kieran Sanders to make it two.

Jacob Walcott converted a penalty just three minutes later after Aaron Woodley brought down Hicham Abdellah and United drew level after Jack Westbrook executed a world-class volley from 22 yards out.

Banbury went ahead on the hour mark after Leam Howards' shot from close range flew into the net though Leigh roared back through Callum McNish who slotted home from close ranger after being played in by Sanders.

McNish put Leigh in front for the second time after he picked the ball up 25 years out and hit a shot directly into the top right hand corner of the net.

United captain Tom Ryan took the game to extra time after he headed in Abdellah across but the extra periods couldn't provide the winning goal.

Both opening penalties were saved in a tense affair before both sides put their next three in the net.

But United's Joel Meade won it for Banbury in the end after smashing home his spot kick after Leigh's Morgan Williams' penalty was saved.
